

Introduction to Extemporaneous Speaking

Ann Shofner
State Contest Manager
cashof@aol.com

Importance of Extemporaneous Speaking

Enables you to present yourself with confidence.

Develop an interest in current events.

Develop a strong work ethic and discipline.

Become an informed voter.

Learn skills that will set you up for long term success.

Types of UIL Extemporaneous Speaking

- INFORMATIVE SPEAKING

Goal is to increase the audience's knowledge on a topic and to stimulate an active interest in the topic.

Topic:

What can be expected in the upcoming debate between Harris and Trump?

- PERSUASIVE SPEAKING

Goal is to reinforce the views of the audience or to bring those of neutral or opposing views around to the speaker's beliefs or proposed course of action.

Topic:

Will the upcoming Harris/Trump debate help Americans clarify the issues facing our society?

Mechanics of the Contest

7-minute speech
Current event

30 minute
preparation

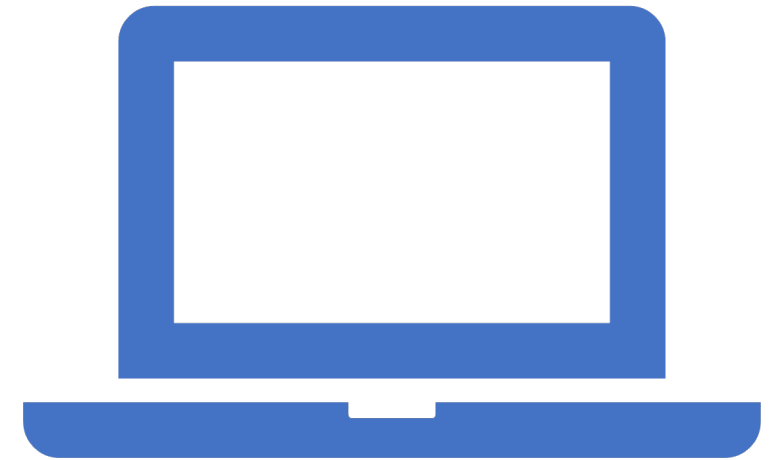

No assistance.
No pre-written speeches.
Use files only.

The “Prep” Room

This is the location where you draw your topic and prepare your speech.

Your files/laptops will be placed in this room for the duration of the round.

After all speakers have finished speaking, you should return to the Prep Room to pick up your files/laptop or to secure them.

The Draw

- The “prep room” is sometimes referred to as “the draw room.”
- Draw 5 topics and choose 1 for your speech.
- Contestants draw at 10-minute intervals.
- All first speakers draw at the same time; all second speakers draw 10 minutes later; all third speakers draw 10 minutes later.
- 30 minutes to prepare your speech.

Topics

- National, International and Texas issues.
- Separate topics for Informative and Persuasive.

It is the responsibility of the contestant to deliver an informative or persuasive speech.

Sample topics on the UIL web site:

www.uil.utexas.edu

Files

Electronic

The use of electronic retrieval devices.

Files may be saved on a flash drive, or on the computer desktop.

Services that can be purchased – Prep'd, Extemp Genie

Check UIL guidelines for ERDs

Work on the files.

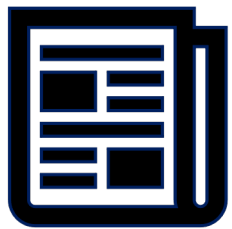

Pay attention to the topics.

Read articles.

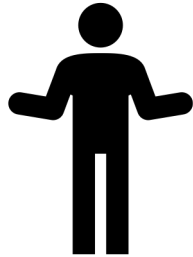

Key to Success

Prepare

Practice

Walk, talk, think like a Champion!

