UIL Computer Science
2022 Rules Reminders

- The temporary rule modifications in place for last year's contest season have expired. Spring competition for 2022 will be conducted according to the rules specified in the current C&CR and Computer Science Handbook, including in-person contests at central sites for District, Region and State, and one computer per team for the hands-on Programming session at all three levels of competition.